

What is FAB?

The Fine Arts Booster Club at Brockman

The Fine Arts Booster Club is a nonprofit tax exempt organization. All contributions to FAB are tax deductible.

FAB Mission:

- . To encourage family and community involvement and provide volunteer and financial support for the arts at Brockman.
- . To work in conjunction with The Arts Steering Committee (a School Improvement Committee composed of staff, parents and community members) that formulates Brockman's strategic plan for the arts.

What art programs are offered at Brockman?

- o Strings programs (during school) for grades 2-5
- o Chorale (during school) for grades 4-5
- o Creative writing initiatives
- o Creative Movement
- o Dance (after school)
- o Drumming (after school)
- o Guitar (after school)
- o Music Club (after school)
- o Art Club (after school)
- o Clay Club (after school)

Why do the arts programs at Brockman need FAB?

- o For continued grant funding from both the State Department of Education as a Distinguished Arts Program (DAP) and the S.C. Arts Commission as an Arts in Basic Curriculum (ABC) model site, we must show parent support in both time and resources needed to institutionalize our programs.
- o To provide the matching funds required by these grants.

How does FAB raise funds?

- o This year's Silent Auction scheduled for Friday, March 19, 2010. Over the past six years we have raised more than $84,500.00.
- o Donations.

How have funds been spent?

- o The purchase of West African Drums, string instruments, and theater supplies.
- o The purchase of Orff instruments (xylophone, metallophone and glockenspiel)
- o The Hiring of certified performing arts specialists to enrich the arts program.

How do I get involved?

- o Visit our FAB website, www.brockmanfab.net for more information, contact our 2010 Auction Chairperson Cindy Mills (803-422-0076) or send an email to brockmanauction@hotmail.com.
